Thank you for entering our trials. We welcome you to the Chattahoochee Weimaraner Club and Atlanta Kennel Club Winter Agility Trials. We appreciate you choosing to come to Perry and our trials.

Please verify that the data we have for your dog is correct and that we have you entered in the proper classes and jump heights. Please contact the Trial Secretary as soon as possible if you detect any errors. Day to day move-ups will be allowed at these trials.

Please note the important information in the additional documents attached. They contain essential information including running orders and judging schedules, volunteering, parking, access to the facility, and other important information. For those who may have trouble opening an email attachment, this same information will be available on the Agility Event page at www.atlantakennelclub.org. Please refer to this website for complete running orders and other useful documents. Only reference copies will be printed and available at the trial.

We sincerely thank all of you who are willing to volunteer to help at these trials. Without a lot of workers these trials would not be possible. On-line sign up for workers is now available. To volunteer for our trials please use your internet browser to access <https://www.trialtoaster.com> and use event code 2017232115.

On behalf of the host clubs, we wish you and your canine teammate a safe journey, the best of luck at the trials, and whatever the outcome, a most enjoyable time together.
